

Mount Saint Vincent University
presents
41st political science in action
Atlantic Provinces Political Science Association Conference
Keynote Speaker Cynthia Enloe
2015 september 25th-27th
Research for social change

Welcome and Acknowledgements

Welcome to APPSA 2015 @ MSVU! “The Mount” is a fitting place to explore “Political Science in Action: Research for Social Change.” Established in 1873 by the Sisters of Charity, and becoming the only independent women’s college in the British Commonwealth in 1925, the Mount has a longstanding commitment to social responsibility and the advancement of women. The university’s vision to “be a model of creative teaching and research that nurtures socially responsible global citizens,” will certainly be celebrated this week-end with an incredible group of conference participants.

We have many supporters that made APPSA 2015 possible. Our Conference Organizing Committee would like to extend our appreciation to the:

Aid to Scholarly Publications grant, MSVU; Alexa McDonough Institute for Women, Gender, and Social Justice (AMI), MSVU; Associate Vice-President Research, MSVU; Canadian Centre for Ethics in Public Affairs (CCEPA); Dean of Arts and Science, MSVU; Department of Political and Canadian Studies, MSVU; Department of Political Science, Saint Mary’s; Department of Sociology and Criminology, Saint Mary’s; Department of Women’s Studies, MSVU; Mayor Savage’s Office; Nancy’s Chair in Women’s Studies, MSVU; President’s Conference Fund, MSVU; Public Affairs Office, MSVU; Social Change Through Community-engaged Research grant, MSVU; Student Works Program, MSVU.

We would also like to thank: Russell Williams for creating and managing the APPSA website; our student Conference Coordinators, Ali Ali and Nathan Horne; the designer of our conference poster and programme cover, Amanda Wilneff and our keynote poster, Janet McClain; and our student conference volunteers (Julianne Acker-Verney, Jenna Chisholm, Nathan Horne, Susan Manning, Emily Nielsen, and Isabella Ruggeri) for their hard work.

We hope that you enjoy your time at APPSA.

All the best,

Tammy Findlay (on behalf of the 2015 APPSA Conference Organizing Committee)
